DEDICATION

Mr. James J. Jennison, a quiet gentleman of calm dignity, has always proved to be most generous in the giving of time and effort to help his pupils. His earnest and sincere assistance, kindly understanding, friendliness, interest, and cooperation have made the whole school his friends. We, the senior class, consider it an honor to be able to dedicate this, our book, to him.

FOREWORD

As man, through the ages, has subdued the apparently overwhelming forces of nature and turned the elements into useful servants, so must we, the class of 1938, as we take our places in the modern world, realize that only through continued cooperation with, and dominance over nature can we hope to endure.

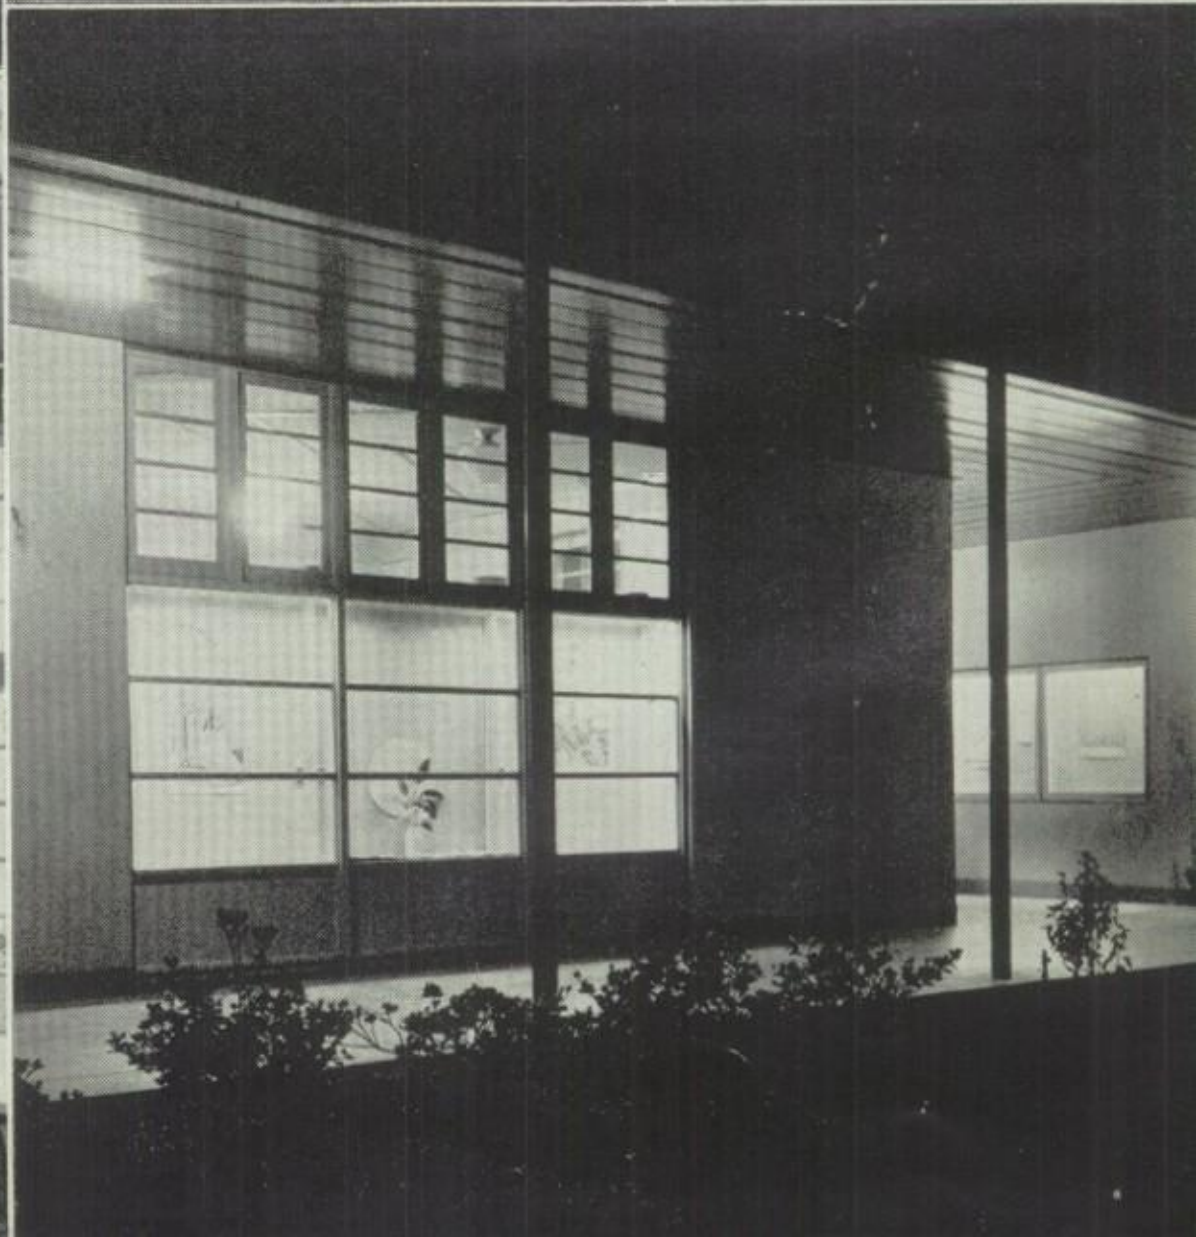

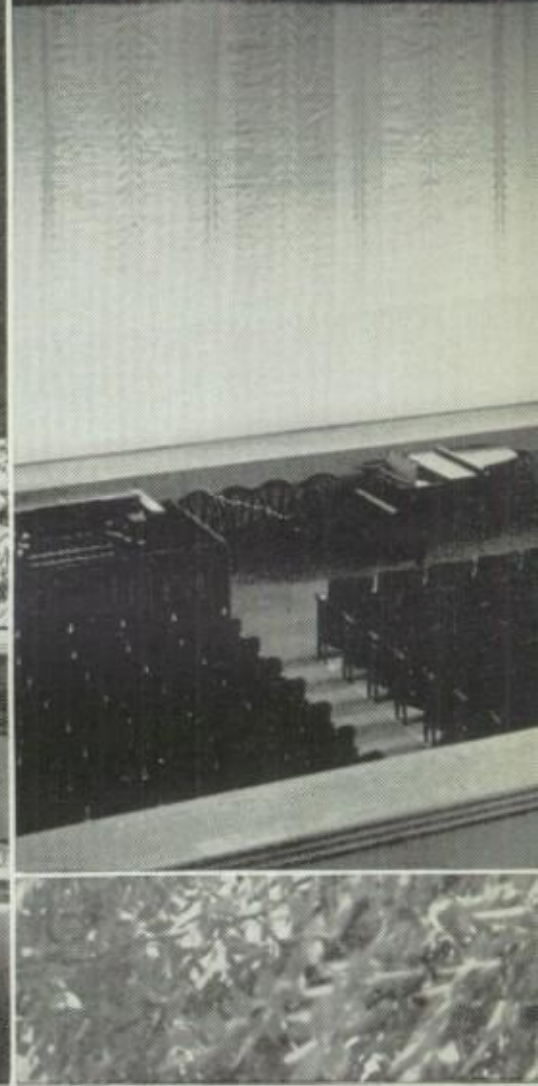

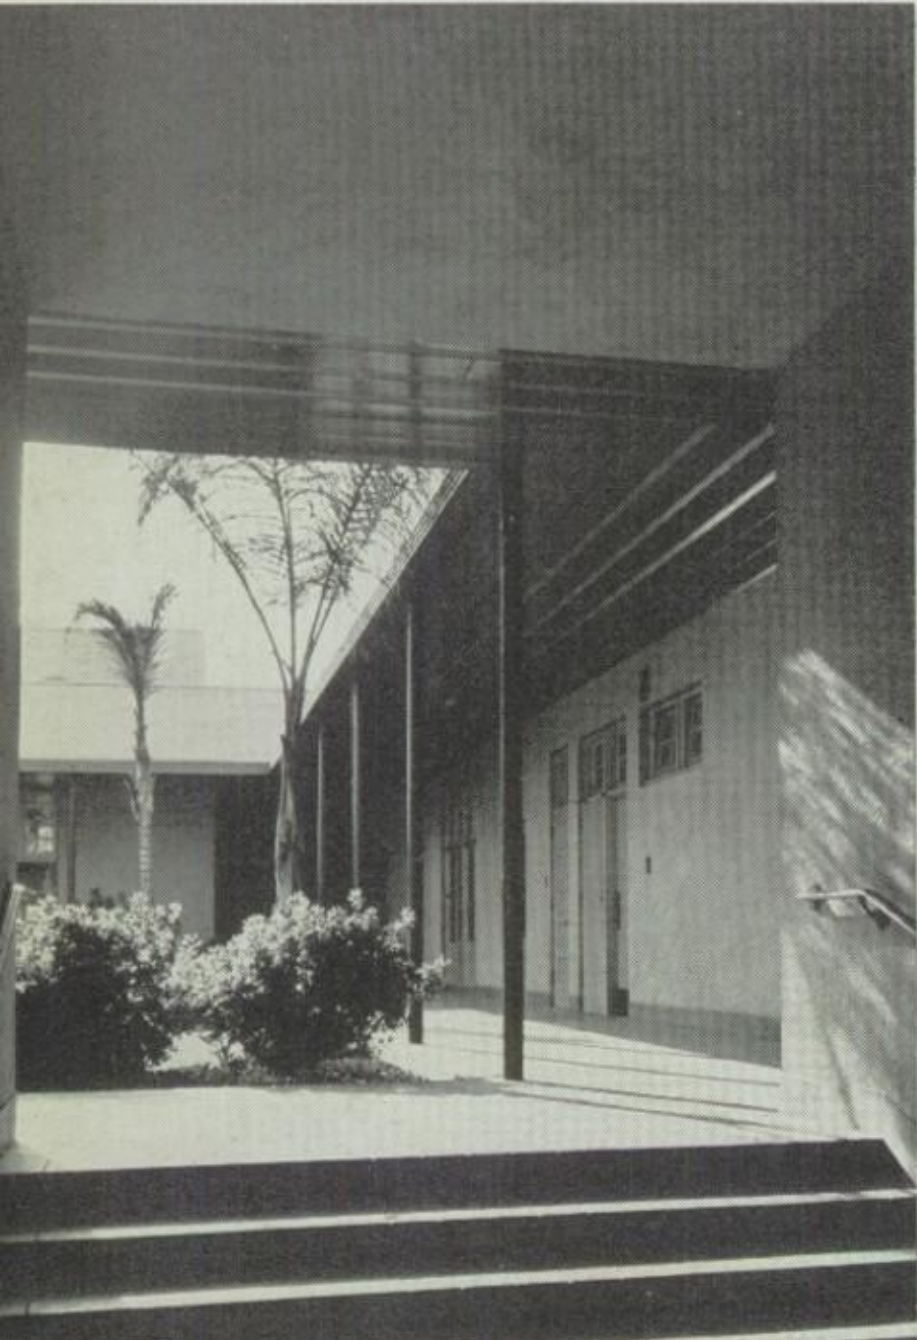

Francis

Lower Right: Miss Kate Meek and her sister, Anna, in the doorway of their beautiful new residence.

MISS MEEK BIDS SPHS ADIEU

Ending a teaching career of forty-three years, twenty-six of them at South Pasadena High School, Miss Kate M. Meek is leaving us to be, as she has put it, "an unemployed lady."

Having built a beautiful new home at 1510 Mirasol Drive in San Marino, the plans of which she drew up herself, Miss Meek intends to do all the things that school has prevented up to now, such as tending her garden and making trips in her automobile.

Beginning her teaching in a small Ohio country school, where she taught all grades, one to eight, Miss Meek has taught in several locations, finally coming out to California, where her father made his fortune as a forty-niner, and establishing for herself the reputation as one of the finest mathematics instructors in the country.

She has set up an enviable record of only three and one-half days' absence during the twenty-six years on our faculty.

We shall all be sorry to see her go, and we wish her luck and much enjoyment from her new home and new life.

FORMER FACULTY MEMBER RETURNS

Mr. Seth Van Patten, a former member of the faculty, has returned this year as secretary of the southern division of the California Interscholastic Federation, which controls interschool sports. He uses a section of the Academic Building for his office.

Below are shown scenes from the classrooms of Miss Lauman, Miss Davis, Mrs. Linn, Mr. Wood, and Mr. Bothe.

Dear Frances,
Here's wishing a very darling girl the best of everything! I've known you a long time and I like & love you a lot longer!
Sincerely,
Mary Bacon

Dear Frances:

Dear Frances,
You are one of the nicest and sweetest girls I have ever known (and that's a long and have time). May you never change and have all the success and luck in the world.
Sincerely,
Joyce Miller

Dear Frances
I bet you never forget our good old costume design class - I know I won't - Best luck - Mary

Dear Frances.

I know that you will have lots of luck + success. I hope you will have lots of fun during your Senior year.

Betty Mae Close.

CLASS OF 1938

On September 13 the class of 1938 made its debut as the leaders of SPS. With Reed Ringstrom as president; Austin Daynes, vice-president; Dorothy Myers, secretary; Buford Graves, yell leader; and Miss Margaret Lauer, as class adviser, activities got underway.

Under the banner of powder blue and navy the class set a record in their buying of senior sweaters. Bill Boettiger conceived the idea of having a school parade march through the main streets of South Pasadena in addition to the regular rally before the first home football game. Eugene White headed the annual Thanksgiving Drive.

The "Leavenworth Case" was chosen as the class play. The twelve students who displayed their dramatic talent were Jim Donnelly, Jovin. Miss Margaret Lauer, assisted by Art Blight as the student director, directed the production.

Senior Day was held June 1 at the Hollywood Riviera Club. Another event which was greatly enjoyed was the prom given by the junior class the second week of June.

June 16 saw the end of the Class of '38's high school life. It is with sincerest regret and fondest memories that the class bids goodbye to SPS.

CLASS OF 1939

Starting the year in fine style the class of 1939 elected as their officers Frank Wright, president; Evelyn Crump, vice-president; Marjorie Jones, secretary; Tom Miller, treasurer; and Margaret Summers, yell leader. These officers proved their ability by bringing the juniors in as winners in the Thanksgiving Drive. The winning booth was decorated with corn shocks, pumpkins, and autumn leaves. The huge baskets of fruit and vegetables donated by the students were placed on display in the booth before they were sent to the needy in the school district.

Choosing the seniors who won the Weldon Fair Play Award was again the privilege of the committee composed as usual by four girls and four boys from the junior class. This year the group consisted of Betty Arnold, Miriam Leeds, Evelyn Crump, Marjorie Jones, Frank Wright, Bill Love, Bill Symes and Glenn Lathrop.

One of the highlights of the year was the junior rally, held in the boys' gym the night before the Alhambra game. The theme was "Old Fashioned," and the class cut-ups did themselves proud. There was nothing as funny, it seemed, as seeing the boys, dressed as girls, kissing each other and then blushing to the roots of their hair.

Chairman Evie Crump taking orders for 1939 senior rings.

Juniors' Prize-Winning Thanksgiving Booth.

Obtaining the junior rings was the responsibility of the ring committee composed of Evelyn Crump, Margaret Summers, Rodman Wilson, Bill Symes, and Frank Wright.

Honoring the senior class as usual at the annual junior-senior prom, the juniors planned and gave one of the best proms ever presented at graduation.

Advisers for the year were Mrs. Lois Cooper and Miss Mildred Price.

CLASS OF 1940

The class of 1940, which entered South Pasadena High School in the fall of 1937 as sophomores, has been active throughout its high school career. Shortly after their entrance into this school, the class members, under the advisership of Miss Grace Wallace, chose their leaders. They were Bob Fisk, president; Frank Hart, vice-president; Pat Chubbuck, secretary; and Amos Schwartz, treasurer. Bob Thompson was elected class yell leader.

Class dues, which are used to pay for sophomore pictures in the Copa de Oro and booths for contribution drives, were collected in a new way. They were taken in English classes, which competed as to the per cent paying; several classes attained one hundred per cent contribution during the drive. Class membership cards were given as receipts for dues.

The class was given a ten dollar prize as a reward for its members' having bought the largest per cent of student body tickets of all the classes.

To further evidence its interest in school activities, the sophomore class took second place in the Thanksgiving drive for donation.

Russell Burkett and Bob Compton flank the sophomore exhibition of the Thanksgiving Drive.

The booth was designed to represent the shoe in which the "Old Woman" is said to have lived. It was very attractive and cleverly done.

In a recent class meeting, the sophomores chose four of their numbers as members of the faculty-student committee which elected the six seniors to receive the Weldon Fair Play Award. Those elected to the committee were Barbara Thompson, Pat Chubbuck, Bob Fisk and Bob Jordan.

The class displayed outstanding ability and great promise of leadership as juniors and seniors.

CLASS OF 1941

The present freshman class entered South Pasadena High School in February, 1938. A short time after its arrival here, the class held its first meeting and elected its officers, who were Andrew Campbell, president; Howard Lorenz, vice-president; Herberta Blight, secretary; and Clark Hunter, treasurer.

The class, although consisting of only eighty members, has a past of activity and a future of promise.

The class had a career of variety and activity in the ninth grade. At the beginning of the semester of February, 1937, eighteen pupils who had just graduated from the Huntington School, San Marino, joined the South Pasadena students to constitute the ninth grade of the junior high school. Officers of the junior high student body who were elected were Don Bowlus, president; Glen Lashbrook, vice-president; and Charlotte Reinhold, secretary.

Last year the class sponsored a hobby fair, which was held on the grounds of the junior high school, and took charge of the exhibits and ticket sales. The ninth grade homerooms gave several parties, among which were two ice-skating parties, held at the Polar Palace.

Top row: Giles, McGee, Smith, Thatcher, Hayward, Bailey, Watson, Holcomb, Rufer, Kober, Albey, Moore, Pettit, Osborne.
Second row: Perine, Brown, Lashbrook, Hunt, Davis, Row, Kuck, McAfee, Brett, Meehan, Anson, Long, Risk.

Bottom row: Miss Oldt, Lorenz, Hunter, Blight, Campbell, Mr. Erickson.

Dear Frances:

I shall write on this page because it reminds me of our little organization, "The Six Belles" Remember. We had a lot of fun and shall have still more fun next year I am sure. Remember all the noons we spent together. We have really had a lot of fun this past year, as I have said before. I hope you have loads of Luck and are able to finish every thing to you once begin, for I know you will.

It'll be I t will be fun next year when we are all high and mighty seniors and can overrule the lowly "Fresh". But it will be fun when we work this week at graduation. Every time I think of graduation I shudder. I'll certainly hate to see all the "swell" seniors go.

"May the devil cut off the toes of your enemies, so that you may know them by their limping." I hope you have the best of everything and have a swell senior year. Loads of Luck.

BOYS' LEAGUE

Endeavoring to aid the boys of the high school in whatever they are interested in is the aim of the Boys' League. There are fifteen committees to which the boys may belong, each of which has a chairman with whom the boys meet.

The League has sponsored a Barn Dance, and in November the cabinet met at Whittier with representatives from each of the other schools in the Foothill League. They met here, also, in April to discuss better ways of meeting school problems.

Peter Van Kuran was president; Bud Sherman, vice-president; Earl Lingle, secretary; Robert Schureman, treasurer; and Mr. E. J. Erickson, adviser.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Friendship, loyalty, and unselfishness are the stars for which the girls in the League aim. It is the purpose of the Girls' League to aid in making those three essentials of character form and crystallize.

The League has had many good times during the past year and there was scarcely a month in which there was not some activity for the Girl's League going on.

Dorothy Amland was president; Phyllis Summers, vice-president; Corinne Nibecker, secretary; and Laura Mae Seitz, treasurer. The organization has as its adviser the dean of girls, Miss Jessie T. Oldt. The Spirit of the League was represented by Claire Boettger in the installation of next year's officers.

SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

Composed of those students whose honor it is to have superior grades, the Scholarship Society is one of the most exclusive and sought after clubs in the school. At least three "2's" and one "1" for each semester are required as a minimum and the membership is by the year.

Gold pins are awarded those seniors who on graduation have at least thirty points and only one three, the latter being in the sophomore year.

The aim and purpose of the club is to promote and recognize scholastic ability and integrity. The names of these seniors are engraved on the bronze tablets in the main hall.

Executive power is vested in a president, which office was held by Nancy McFarland; a vice-president, Malcolm Imbrie; a secretary, Nancy Sheldon; and a treasurer, Robert Beedle. Miss Hope L. Potter is the adviser.

During each year a banquet, an assembly, and numerous other social events are sponsored by the society. Besides the above officers there are various committee chairmen and a representative from each class.

TIGER STAFF

After a year of journalism and work on general assignments the Tiger staff began its '37-'38 career with James Donnelly as editor-in-chief. Although better than average grades are required for position on the staff, most of the "cubs" were able to attain membership because of several having offices which necessitated their dropping staff.

At the semester Lealand Risk was elected editor for the remainder of the year. Page editorship was changed quarterly with all members of the staff holding various positions.

The Tiger issued its annual "Wild" Tiger on April 1 and progressed more with a special six-page edition at Christmas time and an extra-special "Alumni" edition for the First Annual Alumni Day at South Pasadena High School.

Representatives from the staff attended the annual convention of High School Journalists of Southern California held at Beverly Hills High School in December. The Tiger was also entered in competition with other high school papers at the annual Newspaper Day at U.S.C. Several staff members attended this convention, where they enjoyed talks, excursions and luncheon.

A special contribution to the staff this year which was greatly appreciated was the addition of two more typewriters and an exchange of two old ones for new.

CUB JOURNALISM CLASS

An essential part of a successful newspaper, the first year journalism students, known as cub reporters, study the style of journalistic writing under Mr. Elmer H. Crook. Besides learning the technique of this form of composition, they receive practice experience by writing for the school paper, the Tiger. The Tiger staff for the next year is chosen from the class.

PRINT CREW

With cooperation of all related departments within the school, comes successful school activities, and here the print crew is invaluable. They not only print the Tiger, but plan printing of tickets, posters, and programs for various school functions. For the work they do they deserve the recognition and support of the entire student body.

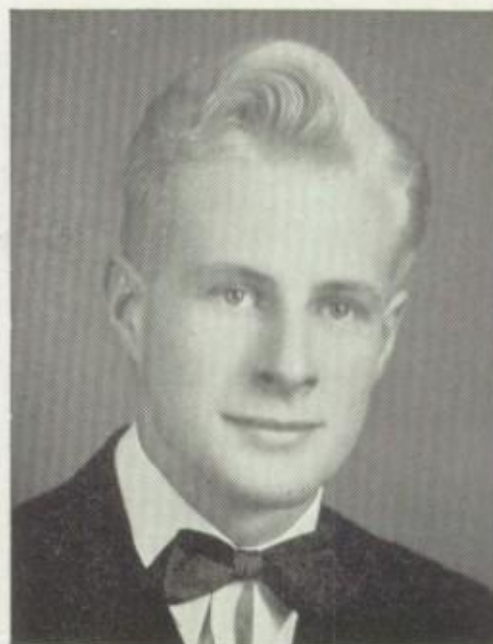

COPA DE ORO STAFF

(A Word from the Editor)

"The whole year's work has been fun, and I would not have traded the opportunity given me for anything. All of the long hours spent by many members of the staff only served to give us the delightful feeling of being on the inside looking out.

PAUL KEPLER, Editor-in-Chief.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Journalists of the South Pasadena High School are honored by election to the Quill and Scroll, which is an international honorary society for high school journalists. The members must be in the upper third of their class in scholastic standing, interested in journalism as a vocation, and must in addition present to the national council an example of their work.

Louise Daugherty was president; Anne Hunt, vice-president; Lewis Ross, secretary; and Patricia Hayes, treasurer. The adviser is Mr. Elmer H. Crook.

ALLIED YOUTH

Largest of the organizations in the high school is the Allied Youth, which is under the supervision of Mrs. Helen D. Orsborn. It is a national organization having its headquarters in Washington, D. C. Anyone may join the club who will take an oath to abstain from any use of alcoholic beverages.

The aim of the Allied Youth is to further the knowledge of alcohol and its harmful effects on the body. Throughout the year they have not only studied, but they have had good times, too. The group went to the Venice Fun House, had a skating party, and held their annual initiation.

This year the South Pasadena chapter has been initiating other schools into the national organization. Among the schools at whose initiations they have presided are Redondo Beach, Van Nuys, and Bonita Union High Schools.

The officers for the past year were Eugene White, president; Marion Clemmer, vice-president; Jean Arthur, secretary; and George Hooper, treasurer.

COMES CLUB

Under the leadership of Rodman Wilson the Comes Club continued its high standard of accomplishment and education.

The Roman Banquet was the high point of the year with all of the members enjoying the luxury and entertainment of the ancient Romans. Cicero students, third year class, reclined on couches at the head of the table. This is a privilege long awaited by the Latin enthusiasts.

Every year projects are submitted by the second year students and were as usual very exceptional and worthy of pride. These projects are gathered into the Latin project room which has become a store-room of replicas of pieces out of the ancient times of glorious Rome. Robert Sears won the Maxima Cum Laude with his map and scroll of the Roman Empire. Magna Cum Laude went to Cherry Kellog and Mary Helen Eldred, and Cum Laude to Roberta Law.

Advised by Miss Elizabeth Hoag, the other officers of the club were George Bertsch, vice-president; Barbara Thompson, secretary; Robert Compton, treasurer; Betty Merrill, social chairman; and Dana Smith, historian.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

To provide a practical, informal use of the knowledge of the French language for its members is the aim of Le Cercle Francais, the French Club. Regular attendance at the meetings which are held the second Tuesday of the month is the only requirement. More than one absence without excuse drops one from the club.

French tables were held every week in Miss Mildred Price's room. During these meetings only French could be spoken. Participants brought their lunches and a slight refreshment was served also at the table.

Officers of the club for the past year were Hannah Eckels, president; Howard Isham, vice-president; Kathleen Hogan, secretary; and Lewis Ross, treasurer. Miss M. Olwen Thomas was the adviser, assisted by Miss Price.

The club is divided into committees whose chairmen were Yvonne Hancock, art; Sue Sherrill, program; Alfred Chadbourne, excursion; William Pettit, attendance; William Cornell, publicity; Ruth Clausen, French table; and Edith, Elena, and Mildred Boyd, refreshments.

EL CLUB GALDOS

Under the leadership of JoAnn Hammett, El Club Galdos, the Spanish Club, has spent an interesting and unusual year. The meetings presented student talent, speakers, motion pictures, and Spanish or Mexican refreshments. Besides the regular meetings they have had several extra-curricular excursions and parties. The club has made several trips to Spanish theatres and points of interest, and they have also sold candy and refreshments at school.

Membership in El Club Galdos is acquired by regular attendance at the regular meetings which are held after school on the second Tuesdays of each month. Other officers are Dorothy Egge, vice-president; Betty Knight, secretary; Mary Lekas, treasurer; and Miss Mary Nash, adviser.

Committee chairmen are Jean Killgrove, program; Frances Cunningham, social service; Sarah Cunningham, courtesy; Mary Ann Cole, excursion; Judy Woods, clean-up; Betty Baker, club room; Cathryn Harrington, scrap book; Dawn Hollis, refreshment; Marjorie Bacon, decoration; and Dorothy Walters, publicity. The annual trip to Padua Hills during the year is one of the important events of the club.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y, an organization which meets outside of school, is sponsored by men of the community as well as by teachers in the school.

The advisers working under Mr. Claude Lashbrook, Y. M. C. A. secretary, are Mr. Elmer H. Crook, sophomores; Mr. Charles Monroe, juniors; and Mr. Arthur H. Boothe and Rev. Edward McGuire, seniors.

The officers of each of the groups were as follows: president—Arthur Blight, Jack Carter, and Bob Sands; vice-presidents—Bill Boettiger, Marshall Bennett, Warren Glass, and Frank Hart; secretaries—Ray Kendall, Dayton Blair, and Howard Cheverton; treasurers—Bob Schureman, Bob Beedle, and Kenneth Herrick.

BENGALS

South Pasadena High School's service organization is called the Bengals. The club is composed of members elected by the faculty. The following merits are considered: former service to the school, willingness to serve, leadership, cooperation, and initiative.

This year's officers were Robert Cheverton, president; Richard Compton, vice-president; and Carl Bloomquist, secretary treasurer. The advisers were Miss Jessie T. Oldt, Miss Hester Lauman, Mr. Elmer J. Erickson, and Mr. James R. Carpenter.

The organization performed many deeds of service for the school during the year. Among these were ushering for the Kiwanis show, the musical show given by the combined Glee Clubs, the senior play, the Peter Pan Players' performance, Alumni Day and Night, and other events.

PETER PAN PLAYERS

It is the purpose of the Peter Pan Players to further organize the dramatics class; to increase the interest in dramatic production; to raise the standard of educational dramatics in the high school; to elevate educational and artistic ideals in the high school in the realm of dramatic interpretation; to present in public one scholarly production during the year; and to raise the standard of scholarship through heightened interest in interpretation and dramatic production.

Officers were elected for the club in February since the club organized late in the year. Alice Conner was made president; Georgine LaMontagne, vice-president; Jean Killgrove, secretary; and Doria McDonald, treasurer. Adviser for the group and director of the annual play, which this year was "Pomander Walk," presented May 27, was Miss Amy R. Foote.

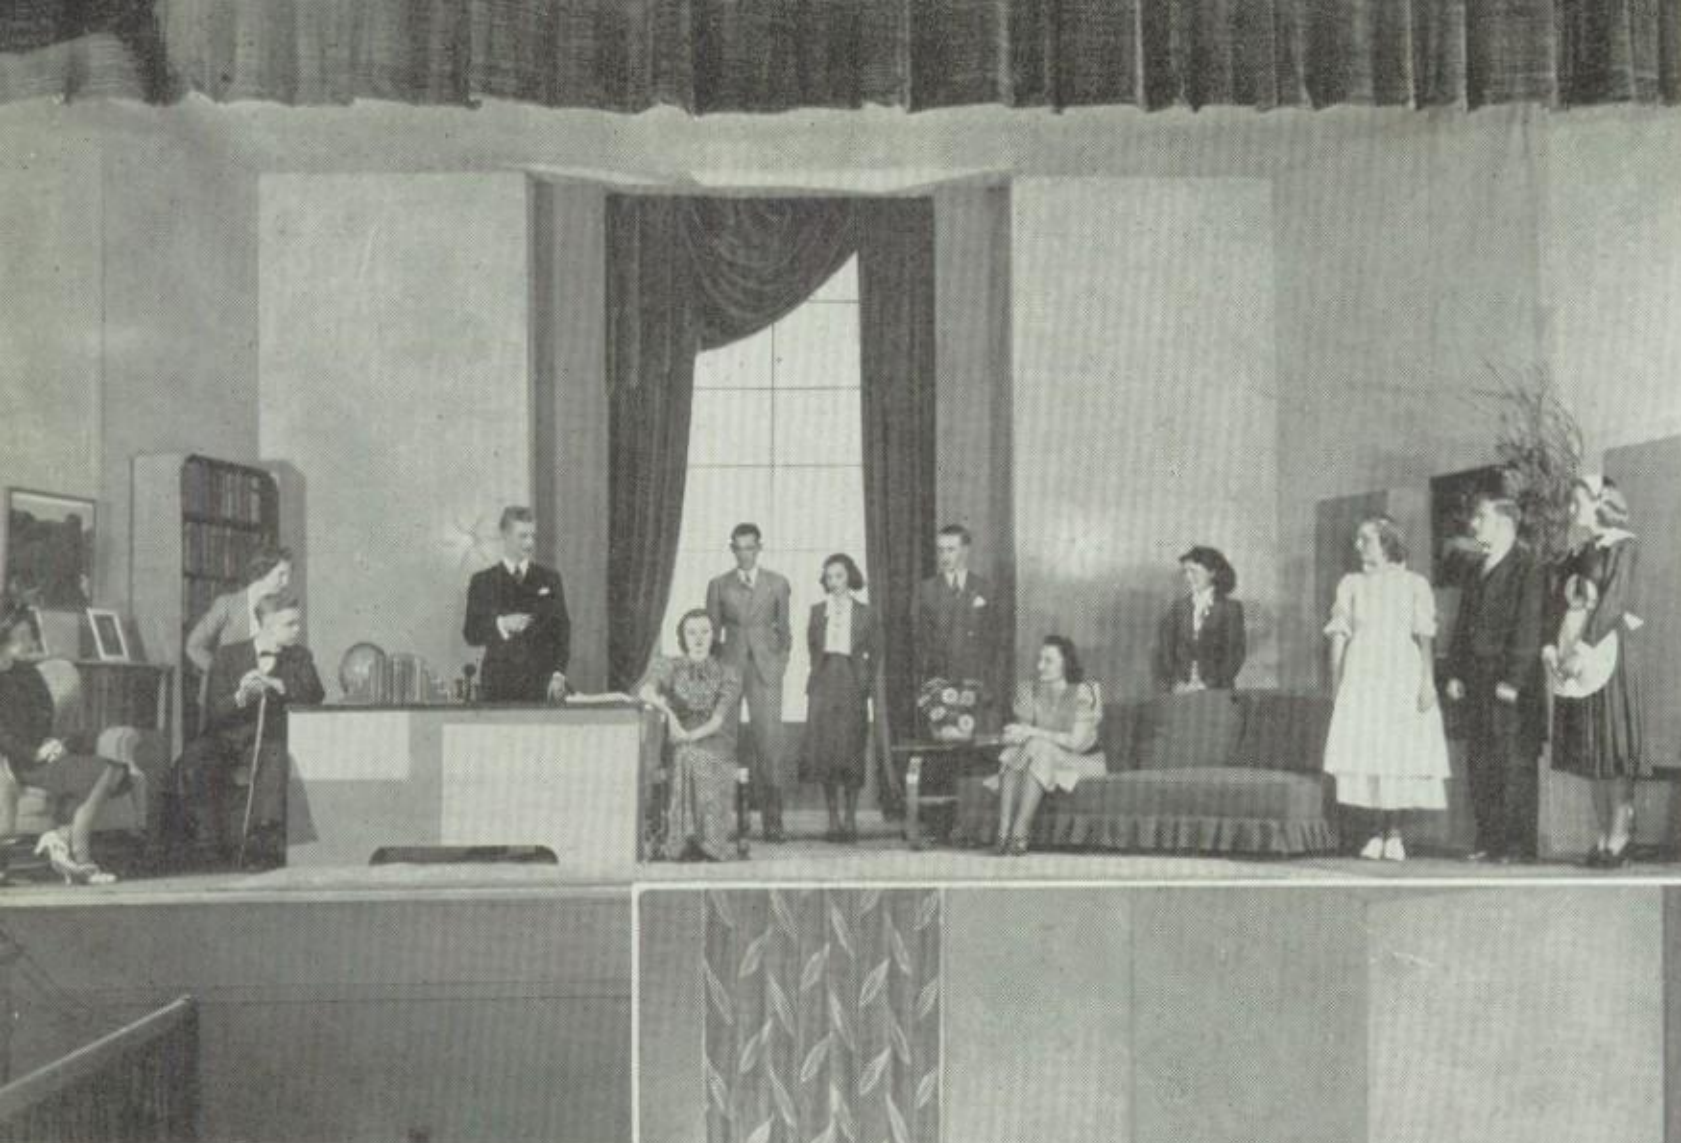

SENATE CLUB

Each Friday in each of the three public speaking classes, first, second, and fifth periods, is held a meeting of the Senate Club which was reorganized this year to include these three classes. Miss Amy R. Foote directs the discussions and is the adviser as well as the teacher.

Officers were not elected this year, the club preferring to give everyone a chance by having a different chairman each week.

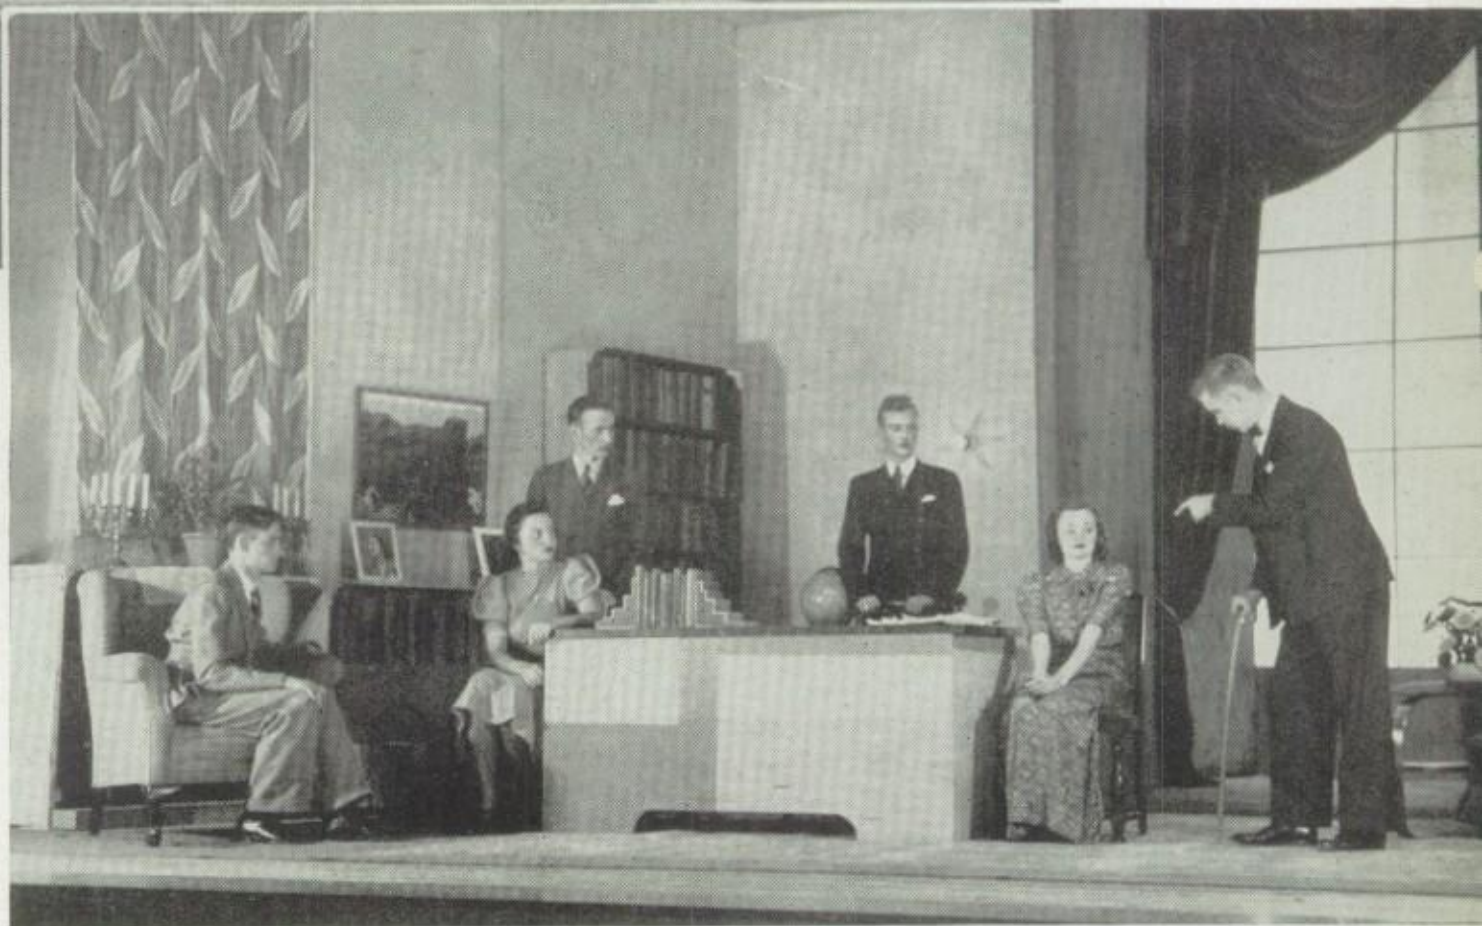

Problems, such as those pertaining to Congress and the Budget, and the government regional planning are discussed in open forum.

Every year an annual picnic is held at Indian Springs, the first week in June, which is the big and grand affair of the year. The three groups competed against each other for prizes with stunts.

On March 26 the senior class of 1938 presented "The Leavenworth Case," a mystery story by Basil King. Miss Margaret Lauer directed the play and Arthur Blight was student director. Mr. Edgar J. Jacobs supervised the stage crew. Ralph Hoyle was stage manager, Robert Barry assistant, and James Labadie and Gordon Jones, electricians. Miss Hester Lau- man was art director.

The cast in order of their appearance were: Thomas Dougherty, Alfred Hove; Molly O'Flannigan, Laura Mae Seitz; Kate Malone, Mary Lou Geis; Trueman Harwell, William Peterson; Everett Raymond, Jerry O'Brien; Eleanore Leavenworth, Phyllis Summers; Sally Burke, Nancy McFarland; Mr. Ebenezer Gryce, James Donnelly; Mary Leavenworth, JoAnn Hammett; Mrs. Bella Cook, Amelia Baker; Mrs. Amy Beldon, Lila Burr; Henry Clavering, Frederick Sanders; and Hannah Chaster, Lois Lee Goodvin.

The business staff was advised by Miss Virginia Dafferner, the manager was William Moore and the publicity manager, Julie Huddle.

EL DORADO CLUB

Top row: Killgrove, Sloan, Knight, Whitney, Hoddle, Miss Potter.

Second row: Woods, Stanton, Black, Cole, Buscaglia, Leeds, Owen.

EL DORADO CLUB

The El Dorado Club, composed of all those girls taking the library course, performs an important service to the student body through the work in the library. Credit is given to each girl who completes the course. The adviser of the club and the teacher is Miss Hope L. Potter.

Each semester new officers are elected. For the first semester this year Mary Ida Knight was president; Julia Rae Woods, vice-president; Mary Ann Raymond, secretary; and Irene Owen, refreshment chairman.

The second semester saw Mary Ann Cole presiding; Carole Buscaglia, vice-president; Marian Carpenter, secretary-treasurer; and Mary Ann Raymond, refreshment chairman.

LIBRARY HELPERS

The library helpers are a valuable service organization as it relieves the librarian and other students working in the library so that they can do other work. The membership is made up of students that are willing to give up part of their study period to help. The boys learn how to put away books which in turn broadens their knowledge of the library system. The Bengals and Hi-Y, as one of their projects, supplied most of the helpers this year.

ORCHESTRA

With an enrollment increase of over one hundred and fifty per cent by the end of the semester, the orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. A. Paul Huntington, has assisted with the entertainment at many school affairs. They have played at various functions including the World Friendship Banquet, Pinafore, the senior play, at a special program for parents and their friends, and at the graduation exercises.

Officers of the group were Franklin Miller, president; Carmen Kelly, secretary; Mary Elizabeth Goodspeed, treasurer; Ben Partsch, librarian; and John Le Grand, manager.

The ability to play an instrument sufficiently well to satisfy Mr. Huntington and the rest of the orchestra is the only requirement for membership.

Training and practice are offered to the members of the school band who desire to learn the fundamentals of band work. They are given regular instruction by the director, Mr. Charles A. Mendenhall.

This year the band played at all the football games, the Los Angeles Fair, Oneonta Lectures, Pasadena-San Francisco Junior College Game, Pasadena Rose Tournament and pageant in the Rose Bowl, Gold Shell, Long Beach Municipal Auditorium, Southern California Band Festival, and in the Coliseum.

Last year the band received the rating of excellent at the Band Festival; only six other schools receiving this rating. This year the band is the largest it has ever been with a membership of fifty-two.

Franklin Miller was president of the group; Philip Smith, vice-president; Norma Hall, secretary-treasurer; Charles Gordon, librarian; and Robert Lange, assistant director.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The Boys' Glee Club continued under the apt baton of Mr. Albert J. Adams and early inaugurated new club uniforms.

The year's officers started with Bill Boettiger, president; Bert Barry, vice-president; Charles Bon Eske, business manager; and Jack Ratterree, secretary. Only changes at the semester were advancement of Bert Barry to presidency and election of Richard Norton to vice-president.

Both clubs also attended the annual contest "Ye Friendly Glee Club Festival" held in Whittier.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Beginning with almost a new glee club this year, the girls rallied under the leadership of Miss Marjorie Brown, director. First semester officers were Alva Adams, president; Jean Schuster, vice-president; Joan Bond, secretary; and Olga Wallace, treasurer. These girls conducted a progressive dinner party for the new girls.

During the second semester presiding officers were Olga Wallace, president; Jean MacDougall vice-president; Virginia Chatterton, secretary; and Yvonne Hancock, treasurer. Martha Eggleston and Yvonne Hancock acted as business managers.

Adams and Miss Marjorie Brown directed the musical score. Mr. Edgar Jacobs and his stage crew built the set under the supervision of Miss Hester Lauman, whose costume design class also created the costumes.

Little Buttercup was amusingly handled by Olga Wallace whose fate ended happily with Captain Cocoran, played by Bert Barry. The beautiful heroine, Josephine, played by Alva Adams, after much interference from the Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, taken by Eugene White, is handed over to

GAA

Bob Cheverton SP CLUB

Participation in at least two athletic activities a semester entitles a girl to membership in the Girls' Athletic Association, providing she attends the initiation and pays her dues.

The G. A. A. members attend various play-days at neighboring schools during the year. The officers are Virginia Smith, president; Irma Frey, vice-president; Eleanore Chamberlain, secretary; Arlee Jean Reynolds, treasurer; and Miss Ruth Dix, adviser.

For the first time the G. A. A. had its own sweaters. They were voted on in January and the girls had them in time for their pictures. They are navy blue with the G. A. A. emblem on the right side.

Election to the SP Club is the highest athletic honor any girl may receive. Election is based on outstanding athletic ability and skill, leadership in GAA activities, interest in sports as shown by participative record, display of fair play and sportsmanship, and scholarship average.

The officers were Caroline Pfeiffer, president; and Jean Arthur, secretary-treasurer. Miss Grace Wallace was the adviser for the club. Their well-planned initiations have made them famous.

The club sponsored a hike to Ice House Canyon, a bowling party last December, and a skating party in April.

NAS

Those heroes of the athletic field who have kept their grades above the school average and who have also earned a letter in one major sport are considered members of the National Athletic Scholarship Society, which is a national organization and has as its sponsor in this city, Mr. John E. Alman, principal.

Its purpose is to encourage high scholarship among athletes, to stimulate a desire for balanced training, and to elevate the ideas of sportsmanship.

The officers for the past year were Albert Mead, president; Robert Yankie, vice-president; Frank Wright, secretary; and Ralph Stone, treasurer.

S CLUB

Most prominent of the boys' athletic organizations is the "S" Club. The ten points required for membership are earned through the acquiring of letters. Ten points are allowed for each varsity letter, three for each Bee letter, and one for each minor sport.

President of the club for this year was Lawrence Broering, William Beggs was vice-president, and Bevis Clark, secretary-treasurer. Coach C. Merrill Green supervised the club this year as in former years.

Every year the "S" Club sponsors a formal dance and a letter assembly.

Honorary members of the club are those who have received a pass for having earned a letter for three years in one sport.

STAGE CREW

The stage has been reorganized this year and is under the supervision of Mr. Edgar L. Jacobs; formerly Miss Lauman has been the adviser. The crew is divided into three groups: carpenters, electricians, and property. Ralph Hoyle is the stage manager for this year. They handle all of the sets for activities given in the school auditorium.

SAVING CASHIERS

The plan of school savings was organized in order to teach students the value of saving. A cashier is elected from each first period class to collect the money once a week and bring it with the passbooks to the office where entries are made by a teller from the Bank of America.

BOOKSTORE

The bookstore is operated for the convenience of the student body so that the equipment required can be uniform. All of the profit made goes towards the ASB fund. The manager is appointed from the office training class. Every month to the salesman who sells the most merchandise a prize is given.

COMMERCIAL OFFICE

The purpose of the bank in the commercial office is to take care of all the money for the school and its various activities and to provide a convenient place to handle and account for all the money and business of the school. It is well-organized and follows exactly the pattern of a larger establishment.

RED CROSS COUNCIL

For the first time a Red Cross council was formed in South Pasadena High School this school year. The council forms a clearing and directing agency for the Red Cross and world friendship activities in SPSHS. Warren Beebe was president and Virginia Wilson was secretary for the past year.

THE BOYS' COUNCIL

An organization new to the school is the Boys' Council, which is composed of a representative group of boys from the Boys' League. There are in the group five seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores who are elected by the League and hold office one year.

Its purpose is to develop better cooperation and improve school spirit in dealing with problems which arise among the boys.

The organization has been functioning for one semester, and will be reorganized after school begins next September. It is hoped that the Boys' Council will continue to function in the years to come.

POMANDER WALK

Pomander Walk, the 1938 production of the Peter Pan Players, gave promise of being a very successful play in the early stages of its preparation at the time this book went to press. The date of the presentation was May 27.

The cast proved to be a strong one, and handled, in a very creditable manner, this difficult play. Miss Amy R. Foote, the faculty director, was assisted by Hermoine Pyle and Eugene White. The production staff also included Ralph Hoyle, Julie Hoddle, Jimmy Labodie, Jim Fiddes, JoAnn Hammett, Mr. Edgar L. Jacobs, Phil Greenfield, and others.

CAMPUS COMMITTEE

The campus committee is made up of both boys and girls chosen by a committee to serve the school. Art Blight, commissioner of interior, was the head of the committee. The sub-committee heads were Phyllis Summers and Bud Sherman.

To see that the grounds are kept clean and also in good condition is the main object of this committee.

BOYS' ATHLETICS

To the boy, the physical education department is the most important unit of school curriculum. Its work is concerned with the proper molding of the student to meet the ideals of his individual self, to build self-confidence, and by so doing to fit him for his future.

To Coaches Green and Swart, who spend their entire day on the field, and Coaches Riddick, Bothe, and Carpenter, who produce the after-school teams, should go the heartfelt appreciation of the students of SPHS for their valuable work in the field of athletics.

Also the managers and yell leaders of the boys' athletics merit a vote of gratitude for their service.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

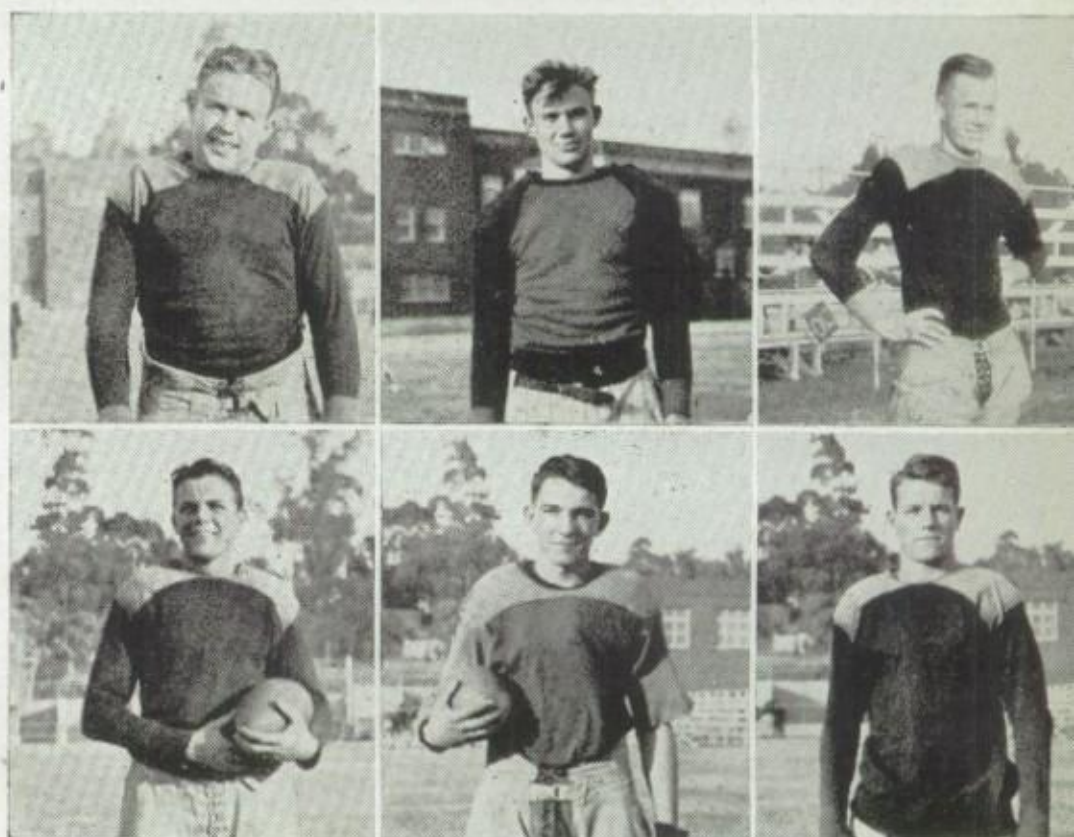

Commencing the season with a turn out of some twenty candidates for the team, the varsity footballers began the year with hopes of a reasonably successful season. Four lettermen returned to Coach Harry A. Swart and Assistant Coach Gordon Clark in the persons of Captain Bill Beggs, Lawrence Broering, Evan Smith, and Louis Spelts. These, plus the ten men with experience either from last year's Bee squad or from the '36 varsity, gave the opportunities of SPHS an optimistic outlook.

The squad molded into the most feared eleven in the league. Its power was felt by Fullerton and Whittier, who beat by enormous scores. The opening game against the Dynamiters from Glendale was a thriller, hard fought, and closely matched. The Glendalers won over the Tigers by a scant 6-0 margin; they went on to capture the Southern California championship. Hoover barely eked out a 6-0 win over the Bengals.

The highlight of the season came in the Muir Tech game played on Armistice Day in the Rose Bowl. Center Symes intercepted a pass in the third stanza to give the Bengals the 6-0 game and to end an eight-year dominance over the Tigers by the Terriers.

At the end of the league season the Tigers stood in third place in the league standings with losses to Hoover and Glendale. Wins over Whittier by 20-7, Fullerton 41-7, and Muir by 6-0, rounded out the Foothill League program for the Bengals.

From end to end the team averaged 165 on the line and 160 in the backfield, with a squad average of 165. This was somewhat lighter than most teams faced in competition. Quarterback, ends and tackles were the weakest positions for substituting material.

Second Row: O'Connor, end; McCall, guard, Cheverton, tackle.

Captain Bill Beggs formed the nucleus of the Tiger defense. Switched from the tackle position he had held in previous years, he carried and kicked as fullback on the offense. For his outstanding work at tackle on defense, he won a first string position on the All-Southern California eleven. Larry Broering, at guard, carried much of the Tiger line strength. Deserving of the league first string position, he backed up the line on defense and blocked with vigor on the offense. Louis Spelts, at quarter, sparked the team on with his fine signal calling and excellent field generalship. He won a first-string all-league spot.

Dick DeGolia, at left end, proved a tough man on defense and a brilliant player on the offense. He, too, won mention as a first-string, all-league end. Right end was held by Frank O'Connor, who won the trophy as most improved player. Frank Wright

Coach C. Merrill Green was faced with the construction of a new team out of inexperienced material at the beginning of the year. Out of his sixteen lettermen of '36 he had two, Reed Ringstrom and Jack Stever, who returned. Injuries to many of the experienced and exponents brought the squad down considerably by the opening of the season.

Due to the inexperience of the candidates and injuries, numerous shifts in positions were made during the season. Jack Stever was elected captain and held down the fullback position during the season. He furnished much of the fire and spark of the offense. At half, Bob Miller and Vic Wallace won their insignia. Bud Sherman called signals at quarter during most of the season, although Stever moved to the position later in the schedule.

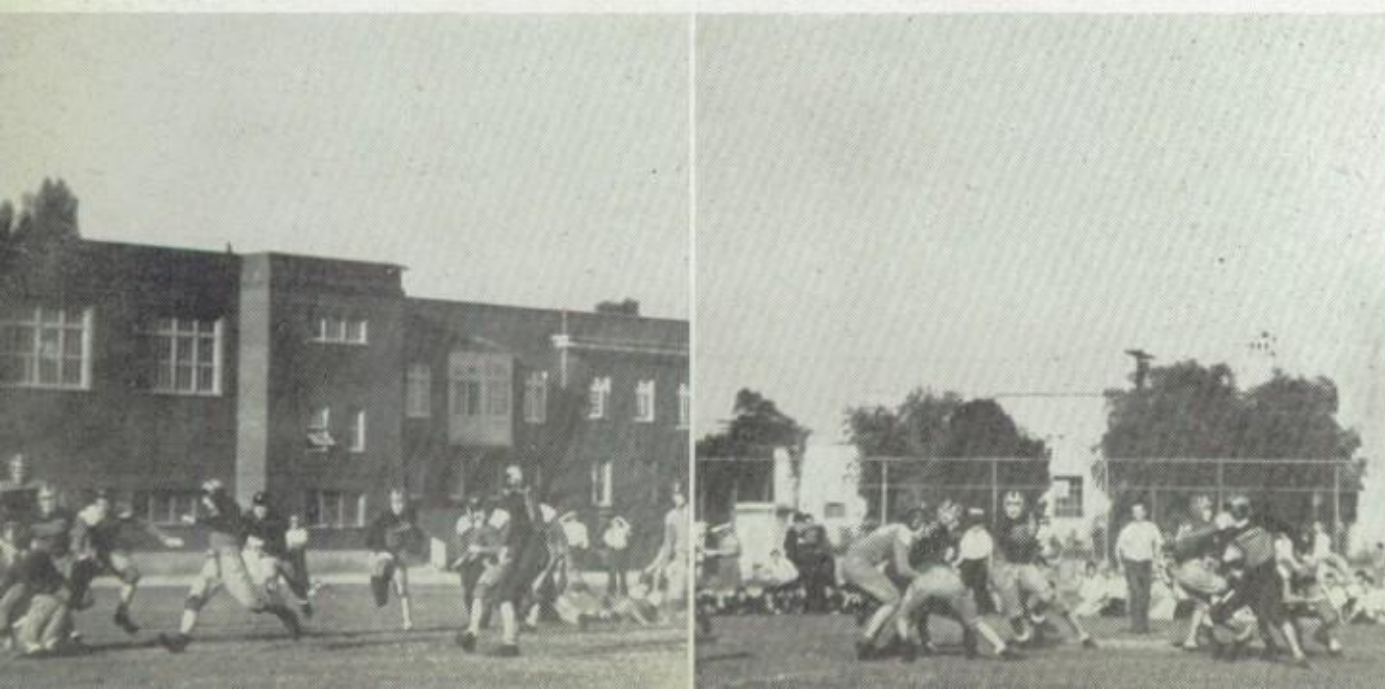

Gordon Tharp and Virgil Richards galivanted at the end spots. Dick Norton and Bob Scoles alternated at these spots during most of the season, although Scoles moved to tackle later in the year. One of the tackle niches was filled by Rex Young, during the whole season, and the other was split between Jack Broering and Scoles. Guard positions were split among Fugit, White, and Wallace part of the season. Bud Martin proved one of the toughest players in the league at his center position.

Out of the league season the Bees placed last in the standings with but one tie to their credit, after a very successful practice season.

INDIVIDUALS

From the end of the semester on, the squad went through the schedule with Larsen and Falconer at forwards, Wright at center, and Harris and O'Connor at the guards.

Out of the entire year of action the two games with Muir Tech were outstanding. They were both lost by the Tigers by narrow margins of about three points. The most consistent and strong performances of the year were shown by the Bengals upon these two occasions. The first game called for two overtime periods with the Terriers finishing the second in the lead.

Larsen was high point man for the season.

CEE BASKETBALL

With the inability of three of his four lettermen to return soon after the commencement of the season, Coach C. Merrill Green was faced with twenty candidates who lacked experience for varsity basketball. Frank Wright was the only one of the letterman to stay with the team.

From the previous year's championship Bee team came Warren Cooper and Bruce McCall. Cooper was the mainstay of the team at guard for the first half.

BEE BASKETBALL

With high hopes of continuing their league dominance in Bee basketball, the Tigers started the season with a team of four returning lettermen. The Bengal lightweights had gone on in '36 to win the Foothill League championship and had beaten Long Beach Poly to win the official Southern California championship.

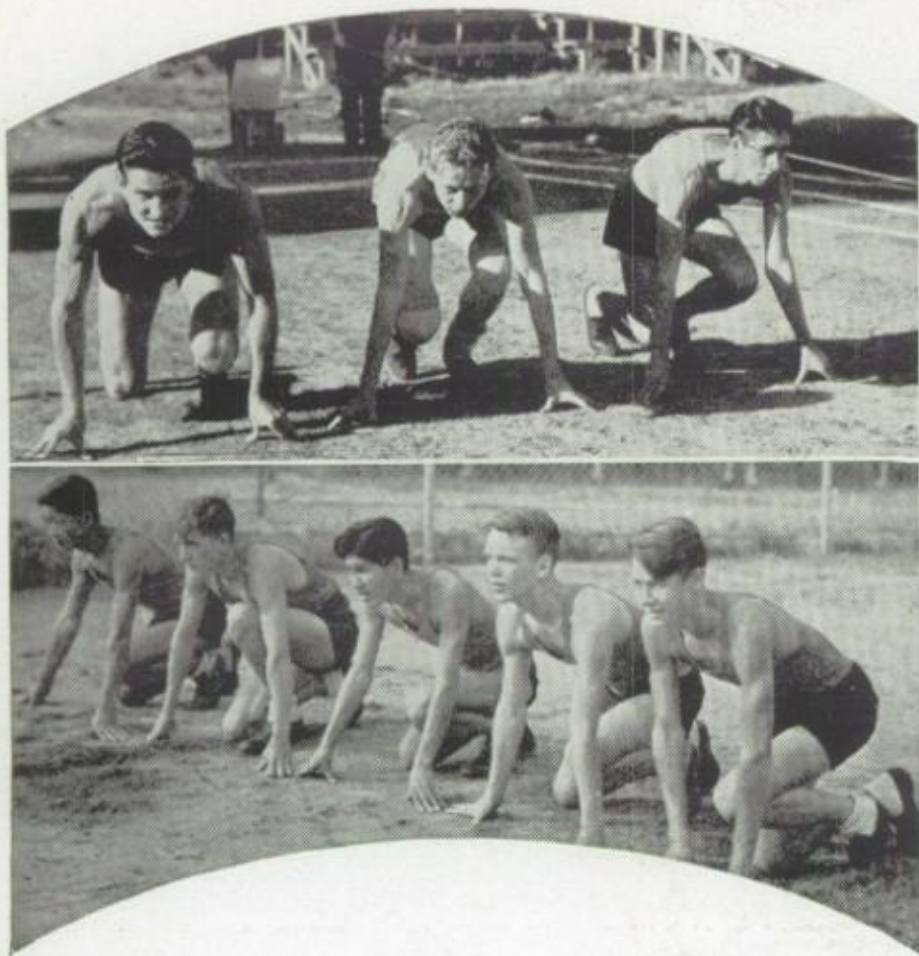

From that championship team of the previous year Reed Ringstrom, Clark Stilling, Bevis Clark, and Bob Hartley came back under the tutoring of Coach James R. Carpenter.

Promising material was shown in Rodman Wilson and Robert Haverstock. In addition, several Cee players showed up for workouts.

For the first semester Reed Ringstrom and Rodman Wilson held down the guard spots. Ringstrom was by far the outstanding defense man in the league. His steady and consistent work was a great asset to the team's strength.

TRACK AND FIELD

With seven lettermen returning to Coach Morford L. Riddick at the outset of the track season, a reasonably strong team was expected. Soon after the beginning of practice, Captain Wally Grant was injured, and the sprint hopes of the team were set back.

From the first meet of the season the Cee tracksters proved to be the strongest group of the three divisions. In the first encounter with Glendale the varsity and Bees came out second best. Against Whittier, the Tigers swamped all divisions. Muir Tech proved too strong in the varsity and Bees, but were beaten by the Cees.

With Fullerton the Bengals conquered the varsity and Cee divisions, but were out in the Bees. Hoover proved the strong team of the league and took all divisions against the Tigers.

BASEBALL

Commencing the season with successful wins over most of their practice opponents the Tigers ran into stiff competition during the league baseball schedule.

The loss of Harry Oka, shortstop, with a broken leg broke up a fine infield. Dick DeGolia performed at the third sack with great success during the season. Frank Wright, first base; Bob Hartley, second; and Paul Simpson, short, made up the infield.

GOLF

By ending up their schedule on top of the league the Tiger golf squad brought the only championship to SPHS during the '37-'38 season. Under Coach James R. Carpenter the team was beaten only by Whittier in all their encounters. Jim Arthur played first man during the season and was followed by Warren Beebe, Ben Eaton, Dave Porter, and Dick Norton.

TENNIS

A well rounded tennis team represented the Tigers in league competition. No individual stars made their appearance during the season, but all varsity positions were of equal strength. The Bengals ended in a tie for second with Hoover. Clark, Van Kuran, Pearson, Zeiger, Miller, McGowan, Stampley, Linthicum, and Chapin earned their varsity letters. All except the latter two were lost to the team by graduation.

SWIMMING

Second Row: Fugit, Sommer, Sonzer, MacMillan, Harris, Worth, Clark, Lawton.

SWIMMING

With a squad composed mostly of juniors, the spring of '38 brought as strong a swimming team as had been at South Pasadena for several years. Under the coaching of Mr. James R. Carpenter the water athletes downed Muir Tech 57-19. Most of the practice matches were victories with one win over PJC.

The strength of the team revolved about Scoles, Worth, Summer, Schwartz, and R. Ishii, most of whom return the following year and promise to make a strong squad.

TUMBLING

Meeting the requirements of flyaways, flips, hand stands, giant swings and other stunts on the rings, parallel bars and mats and horizontal bar, twelve men qualified as members of the tumbling team.

Led by Captain Howard Rufer the activities of the team included performances before the junior high and upon other occasions. No matches were held. The team was coached by Coach Harry A. Swart.

Individuals who were outstanding during the year were Captain Rufer and Richard Lawton on the mats, and Bill Roberts on the bar.

Guard spots were filled by Broering at left and Bruce McCall at right. McCall was a graduate of the '36 Bee team and proved his value on the field. He was elected to be one of the '38 co-captains. The center position was split between Jim Donnelly and Bill Symes. Both were of light weight but through their passing accuracy and fight made up for lack of beef. Both were from the '36 Bee squad and showed their experience in games. Symes was also elected to be one of the '38 co-captains.

The half positions were held by Bob Finch and Bill Dunlap with Jack Armstrong, Bud Norton, and Evan Smith at the positions off and on. Norton and Smith were taken out because of illness, and Armstrong understudied Dunlap. Finch was a tough, light player who called signals at times. He was an accurate passer, shifty, and a strong blocker. Dunlap was noted for his ability to snatch passes from the air and cross the goal stripe. He was large and produced much strength. Armstrong came through with the goods on many occasions.

Rod Wilson, Larry Broering, and Dick Compton made up the outfield. Virgil Richards caught during the season, and Williams, Beyrle, and Parmenter made up the other half of the battery.

Coach Arthur H. Bothe's junior varsity baseballers finished the season with a reasonably successful round of league schedule. Boekennoogan, Kipp, Burkett, Cox, Young, Crocker, Ball, Cockle, Moore, Thompson, G. Young, and Killingsworth made up the strength of the regulars.

Wilson came from that former year's team and proved his worth throughout the year. Bevis Clark cavorted at the center position. Another fine defense man, he was also one of the outstanding offensive men in the circuit. Clark Stillinger and Bob Hartley held the forward jobs. The teamwork of the two boys was extraordinary, and their cooperation proved the strength of the Bengal attack. Stillinger was fast, light, and a strong man on the defense; Hartley ended the season as high point man.

Again the league championship hinged on the closing game with Muir Tech. The Bengals had come through the year with two losses to Whittier, one loss to Hoover, and one win over Muir. The league standings was such that the final game decided the league outcome.

On the Terrier floor the Tigers dropped a 44-31 game to the Techers, who consequently became league champs.

MISS DIX

MISS WALLACE

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

A very successful year was enjoyed by all girls sports enthusiasts under the expert direction of Miss Ruth Dix and Miss Grace Wallace, athletic coaches. An interesting variety of activities was offered; and a large number of girls participated, each one gaining a great deal in health, sportsmanship, teamwork, and pleasure.

The three charming girl cheer leaders, Jill Coffman, Lois Wohlwend, and Fran Thurman, contributed their bit in arousing spirit and enthusiasm in girls' sports competition.

Credit is also due the managers of the various sports, who proved themselves to be capable leaders in every field. Aside from their regular duties in connection with the organization of intra-mural sports, they acted as hostesses and representatives for playdays and tournaments at other schools. Their activities were varied, and each one did her job well.

At the beginning of the year, those in charge of girls' athletics were handicapped by a lack of space, because the girls' gym field was being planted with grass. They therefore devised several indoor activities, and playbird, rotating ping-pong and different individual and team games added interest and variety to the physical education program.

Several kinds of dancing were also included, making the program a well-rounded one, indeed.

VOLLEYBALL

Upon returning to school last fall, the student-body found that the long-awaited grass field for girls' sports competition was in the first stages of preparation; and its progress was eagerly watched by all. In the meantime, a corner of the boys' field was donated for the use of the girls; and volleyball practice got under way, with Virginia Bertch as manager.

This year, the third period class won the inter-class championship and was honored at a volleyball spread. Also honored was the all-star varsity team, including Irma Frey, Eleanor Chamberlain, Carol Henry, Lois Laning, Elizabeth McLennan, Josephine Misterly, Shirley Peterson, Virginia Smith, and Lois Wohlwend.

HOCKEY

The highlight of the hockey season was the use of the newly grassed girls' gym field. Previously it had been used somewhat for basketball, but the real pleasure came in playing hockey on the new grass. An excellent field is quite conducive to fine playing; and, as new equipment had also been obtained, a very successful season was only to be expected.

Although hockey was not played at South Pasadena last year, that did not seem to be a handicap. In fact, the Tigerettes won three out of four of their games at a pre-season hockey playday, a fine record indeed.

BASKETBALL

A new system for after-school sports competition was inaugurated with the beginning of the basketball season. Candidates were tested and classified as "A's" or "B's", according to their skill. This system proved to be very successful and is expected to be followed in the future for all sports.

As the basketball season progressed under the management of June Hagin, much enthusiasm was aroused; and when the final results were tabulated, fourth period was found to have won both "A" and "B" championships. Other periods were compensated by the all-star ratings, and those honored in the "A" group were Virginia Smith, Betty Hill, Carol Henry, Shirley Peterson, Arlee J. Reynolds, and Elizabeth McLennan.

PLAYDAYS

Sports spreads played an important part in the year's physical education program. One was held at the close of each season, and varsity awards were made at that time. Stars of former years returned to challenge the newly-named varsity, and it was the occasion for a great deal of fun.

Playdays also offered an opportunity for arousing enthusiasm and school spirit. None were held at South Pasadena this year, but the G.A.A. participated in several competitions elsewhere and made a favorable showing in every sport.

The Tigerettes experienced their greatest triumph over Alhambra in basketball by winning every game; similar successes were enjoyed throughout the year.

SWIMMING

Led again this year by Mary Mosher, manager, the swimming team accomplished a great deal during the year. Classes in swimming and diving were held each Tuesday at the Pasadena Y. W. C. A. Instruction in life saving was also given; and advancement was made by everyone, from beginners to lifesavers.

The most important event of the year was a swimming meet with Hoover High on April 5. Our girls made a fine showing, winning a seven-point victory over their opponents. The South Pasadena relay teams won both contests, and Eleanor Chamberlain did very well in the individual races. Other outstanding swimmers included Margaret Pfeiffer and Virginia Smith.

TENNIS

Sis Larkin, popular sophomore, shone the brightest of the many stars on this year's tennis ladder. Shortly after the ladder competition began early in the fall term, she reached the top and remained there throughout the months that followed.

The principal competitors for top spot were Marjorie Beechler, Jean MacDougall, and Dorothy Doerr. There were many other outstanding players in the tennis ranks, including the championship doubles team of Roberts and Stearns and their closest threats, Wilson and Seitz. These girls were all on the inter-school tennis team, which won from Alhambra on April 6 in the first match of the season.

GOLF

This year, those girls interested in golf organized a new club with specific regulations. Each girl was to play three successive Fridays before she might become a member; and in order to attain honorary standing, it was necessary to break a fixed score. When this article went to press, the season was still young; and no one had yet become an honorary member.

At the beginning of the year, several golf lessons were given to everyone participating, in order that correct positions and swings might be learned. The scene of action was the Montebello Golf Club, and the manager, Jane DeWitt.

RIDING

Riding enthusiasts enjoyed many afternoons exploring the trails of the Arroyo, where each Tuesday they rode their favorite mounts. A part of the time was spent in gaining instruction in the finer arts of horsemanship; and with Barbara Buttress as manager, a busy and successful year was enjoyed by all who participated.

Fulfillment of requirements for membership and advanced standing in the riding club, "Spurs", was an important activity of the group; and those who attained "Novice" rating were: Hermione Pyle, Pat Vedder, Ann Page Holley, and Alice James.

The attainment of "Equestrienne" and "All-Star" ranking requires a more thorough knowledge of horsemanship and the riders were kept very busy.

In 1 we see Rose, Barry, Lingle, and a Catalina gal. 2 shows Jill Coffman and he-man Matt O'Connor '36. Looking over a Balboa bench are Cole, Carnes, Durrell, and Worth in 3. 4, the Boyd triplets. In 5, Sullivan and Paul in a carefree moment. All at sea in 6 are C. Mosher, D. Kerr, M. Mosher, B. Kerr, and two handsome unknowns. In a studious mood, Nazro. 7. Next, 8, Balboaites Leeds, Sheldon, and Jones. 9. Martin and Symes. Following, we see Evie Crump, the girl with the personality smile, 10. Revealing a Joe E. Brown tendency in 11 is Mary Bacon; with her, Nan Bennett. Don't let the sign fool you in 12. Behind it are MacLennan, Blount, Oliver, and Lemon. In the corner, 13, we find Clayton and McDonald at Big Bear. 14, we must admit is our piece de resistance, David Heron. Taking life easy at Bal we find Dot Amland in 15. To the left we encounter in 16, Donnelly. 17 shows those three little maids from school: Mary Lou Geis, Mary Hiltner, and Betty Merrill. In 18, Fisk, Farmer, Calkins, Flather, Hansen, and Wagner. 19 gives us Peterson and Sloan in a touching scene. Last of all, in 20, are Heron, Jorden, Dana, Stearns, Bernard, Anderson, and Doyle.

Happy about the whole thing in 1 are Kepler, BonEske, and Bond. 2 is Catalina Kids Lingle, Rose, Graves, Simpson, and Barry. Figure it out—Guinn and James in 3. 4, the Hunt girls. At Bal Island Easter: Miller, Pfister, Arthur, Kolterman, Bacon, Amland, and McDonald—15. Bette Knight, and the Mosher's peer at us in 6. 7, Fran Thurman. Frankie Wright in 8. 9, Griswold goes passionate. Dave Heron and "Smudge" pose for us in 10. Noon period brings McDonald, Woods, Jones, and Hollis in 11. 12, 13, 14 are, without further comment, Hill, Boettiger, and Killgrove. 15. A day at the beach with Love, Roe, Beechler, and Jackson. Going to 16 we find sub-debs Archibald, Coffman, Wohlwend, Pyle, and Summers. We give up—Bob Yankie in 17. 18, DeGolia and Quesnell. Wohlwend and Pfeiffer in 19 smile at the birdie. Ain't it grand—Simpson and Daigh in 20. 21: The "Ramblers," Davis, DeVault, DeMille, White, Calkins, and Johnson. Look closely in 22 and you'll see those happy morons, the "Kruds," Kepler, Crocker, Heron, Blight, Donnelly, Hamrin, Bon Eske, and Bennett at the Kepler shack on Balboa Island. The gal is from Glendale—we didn't get the name. In 23 we see Farmer and Fisk, the morning after. In the middle are those cut-ups, C. Mosher, M. Mosher, Bilbo, Knight, MacDougall, and Dumont; the place, Newport, 24.

Beaming at us from 1 we see Durrell, Geis, Woglum, Miller, Crump, Gibbs, Boettiger, Beckwith, Leeds, and Roberts. If you look behind that showman in 2, you will see Killgrove and Blount. 3, that happy person, Eula Hall. Jean Denniston waves "hello" in 4. The Jackson sisters in 5. Those speed jobs in 6 belong to Weiss and Withrow. That mess of pulchritude in 7 belongs to Mary Bacon. Dropping down to 8 we encounter Larsen and Pritchett all dressed up for something. Well, well, looky here in 9! How did this cheerful little cherub get in our picture? No, no, it can't be—but it IS. Scrutinize it carefully, my friends, for here we have preserved for posterity or something an early picture of none other than that bodacious Beau Brummel, Charles Bon Eske! In 10 we encounter those beauties of 718 Goldenrod, Ferrier, Lillie, Beckman, and Armstrong. 11 is Tom Rose. Pausing during a hike in 12, we find Calkins, Johnson, Flather, Wagner, and Nazro. 13, in which we see D. Kerr, Mitzi, B. Kerr, Durrell, Leeds, and Mosher, was taken at the usual place. Next, in 14, the Mosher again. All tangled up in 15 is Art Pond. Phyllis Summers gives us that famous smile in 16. 17 reveals Bilbo and Dumont—guess where? Bill Beggs shows off his latest in 18. Giving us the usual grin, Leeds in 19. Sailorboy La Spada and Ruth Pfister cavort in 20. All at sea in a big way in 21 are Egge, Mowry, Sloan, Christensen, McCune, Beryle, and Weiss. 22, Miss Waterman. Dick DeGolia goes berserk in 23. Mr. Huntington and Mr. Wood talk things over in 24. Adding the romantic touch in 25 we find Summers and Osborne.

In the upper left we find Summers, Wohlwend, and the Schemels at Wallaces. 1. That puzzled expression in 2 belongs to Gertie Arthur. Balboa pops up in 3 with Guinn and James. Smiling at the boy across the street in 4 is Carrie Pfeiffer. Getting all blistered at Bal are Adams, Seitz, McCall, Capucio, Hollis, and Simpson in 5. Those hardworking staff members, Rudkin and Hoddle, make their appearance in 6. 7 shows our pals, Big Hutch and Little Hutch. You tell us—Monroe in 8. Crump in 9. 10 is that Bill Beggs man. 11 shows romancers, McKenzie and Hill. Linksters Norton and Miller in 12. 13 is part of energetic sixth period gym. 14 is just people. "Joe Esq" Supple appears in 15. We couldn't be bothered identifying 16. Next in line, 17, shows Mrs. Kepler and Kruds Donnelly, Kepler, Bennett, Bon Eske, Blight, and Hamrin on Easter Sunday morning at good old Balboa Island. Displaying much girlish pulchritude in 18 are those sweethearts of the school dance—Mademoiselle Zeiger, Senorita DeGolia, and Fraulein Wright. 19 brings those wags—the staff of Ye Tiger at their Laguna outing. Left to the other side are LaVena (Damsel in Distress) Daugherty; Lewis (Ivan the Terrible) Ross; Ted (Sagebrush Goatee) Kistner; Paul (Angel Face) Kepler; Marjorie (Snookums) Wright; Lealand (Bull-Slinger) Risk; BOTTOM ROW: Nancy (O You Kid!) McFarland; Alice (Butch) James; Julie (Pass the Beer) Hoddle; Doria (Killer-diller) McDonald; and Pat (Columbus) Hayes. Claire Boettiger hears a new one in 20. Lealand Risk, in 21, brings us a play by play description. 22 is Al Crocker, the JayVee star. 23, our Bee football team, shows us how they won the championship (in natural dancing).
